F Faculty Development

Cognizant of the faculty's vital role in shaping, training and equipping students for significant skills, knowledge and values and thus preparing their progress towards achieving promising careers; this University pushed faculty development as one of the priority concerns. Recognizing faculty development as a critical factor towards building the strong foundation of an educational system to ensure quality education, this University sent a number of faculty members to various trainings, seminars, fora, and conferences related to their field of discipline.

The University sent a number of faculty members to various capability-building trainings, seminars, fora, and conferences.

G Students Achievements

Jose Rizal Memorial State University (JRMSU) endeavors to provide students quality education and academic excellence - this has borne fruits of laurels. The University has always been proud of its students who show outstanding brilliance and magnificence in the areas of academics and in extra and co-curricular activities.

Numerous students capped sterling feats in regional and national competitions. JRMSU was declared hall of fame in National Rizal and History Quiz being four-time champion edging big State Universities and Colleges all throughout the Philippines. It also excelled in Math Challenge and other battle of the brains contests. Their achievements are manifestations of quality and excellence in education offered by the University.

Students of the University also outshone competitors from other institutions in different sports, literary and musical competitions.

JRMSU students excelled in various regional and national competitions.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT SERVICES

With the mandate to conduct research in support of the development plan of Zamboanga Peninsula and the national government, Jose Rizal Memorial State University (JRMSU) System has cultivated the culture and environment for research among the constituents in the academic community. Through research findings and outputs, the institution contributes to the technological, social, economic and political advancements that redound to the benefit of the society within its sphere of influence thus improving the quality of life of its people.

Having established linkages with local, national and international agencies, i.e. United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) and UN – Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), and the Spanish Government, JRMSU has continued to strengthen its research programs by conducting a number of researches which focus not only on education and policy disciplines, business and tourism, agriculture and forestry, marine biology and health and environmental studies. Wide dissemination of these outputs are undertaken by presenting research results in local, national and international research fora, symposia and conferences and through publication in local, national and international peer-refereed and peer-reviewed journals.

Funding agencies have already noted the quality of research outputs that the University has produced. This year, in the realm of fishery alone, the University received a P3.45 M grant from the Bureau of Fisheries and Aquatic Resources to implement the Aquasilviculture Project in the province.

JRMSU was declared Second Runner-Up (National Level) in the 2011 Search for CHED Best HEI Research.

A Awards and Recognition

Academic Year 2011-2012 marked another outstanding performance of the University in field of research. These research endeavors of the University gained recognition by government agencies and organizations like the Commission on Higher Education (CHED), International Association of Multidisciplinary Research (IAMURE) and the Philippine Association of Institutions for Research (PAIR).

In 2010, the University was awarded the 2010 CHED Best HEI Research Program 1st Place – Regional Level. Dr. Evelyn R. Campiseño, the Vice President for Research and Development was awarded as the 2010 International Research Manager and the Research Quality Assurance Advocacy Award. Moreover, the official research journal of JRMSU "The Threshold," was conferred by PAIR the 2010 Quality Assurance Award for Research Journal Publications and 2010 Quality Assurance Award for Peer Review System. Its editorial board was also awarded the 2010 Outstanding Performance of the Editorial Board of Research Journal Publications. These are the notable achievements of the University that made her known in the region and the country as a whole.

In July 2011, the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) declared the research program of JRMSU entitled: "Impact of Climate Change: Multidisciplinary Approach" as Second Runner-Up (National Level) among higher education institutions (HEIs) in the Philippines during the 2011 Search for CHED Best HEI Research.

EXTENSION SERVICES AND LINKAGES

Jose Rizal Memorial State University provides available the knowledge, skills and expertise to assist and facilitate various groups like the women and children, indigenous people, among others, thereby enhancing its role as a development catalyst in the socio-economic development of the country. This school year, it initiated a number of community/university collaboration in empowering thousands of residents in different local communities and government with the view of uplifting the standard of living of the people within its sphere of influence.

The University maximized its partnership to local, regional and national government line agencies and private sectors to strengthen its full-force extension workers and extend its geographical reach of adopting communities. This school year, the University established over forty (40) linkages. This initiative enabled the University to widen its opportunity of rendering extension programs and services not only to its vicinity but also even beyond its area of responsibility.

Due to the known active services that the University offered, it gained trust from the communities and invited external funding agencies to support its extension programs. As a result, it extended its services even beyond the border of Dapitan City. At Buena Suerte, Mutia, Zamboanga del Norte for example, Main Campus periodically conducts literacy program and livelihood training. And it also ventured its services to the Municipality of La Libertad, Zamboanga del Norte through economic intervention for poverty alleviation in partnership with DOLE, DTI, DOST, DILG, DDPKaRoMa, LGSP-LED, DA, BFAR, PGO, DENR, TESDA, FIDA, and PCA, among others.

Consequently, JRMSU was awarded by the CHED the 2008 CHED Outstanding Extension Program Award (1st Place – Regional Level and 2nd Place - National Level) and the 2010 CHED Outstanding Extension Program Award (1st Place – Regional Level).

3Y Strategic Planning headed by JRMSU-VPRED, Dr. Evelyn R. Campiseño with the Chairman of the program Dir. Ponciano Ligutom of DOLE IX.

A JRMSU spearheads Strategic Planning of One Locality, One Industry, One Service Quality (3Y) Program.

Jose Rizal Memorial State University (JRMSU) in coordination with the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE), spearheaded the 3-year Strategic Planning 2011-2014 at Dapitan City Resort Hotel on March 24-25, 2011 in line with the implementation of One Locality, One Industry, One Service Quality (3Y) Program.

The program has the goals of (1) developing the community and its tourism industry through collaborative/partnership of stakeholders, local businesses and people; (2) improving the service delivery of different sectors through continuous skills development program and cost efficiency strategy; (3) preparing the human resource to be more competitive and employable; (4) developing the Service Quality (SQ) for the Hotel and Restaurant Industry as a strategic management tool; and (5) expanding the implementation of the Service Quality Program to the business chain. The program has started its implementation in Dapitan City using a convergence and partnership approach among public and private institutions namely: NWPC, DOT, LGU Dapitan, DDPKaRoMa, LGSP-LED, DILG, DTI, DOST, TESDA, PNP PAL, CAAP, Phil. Nat'l Red Cross, PCBSI, PPA, and Fantasy Land Travel and Tours.

B JRMSU with DDPKaRoMa, LGSP-LED, DOLE, DILG, TESDA holds Livelihood Training

Jose Rizal Memorial State University with DDPKaRoMa, LGSP-LED, DOLE and DILG conducted the Livelihood Training among women in Burgos, Dapitan City on April 27-29, 2011.

The program introduced to the participants the skills in delivering quality services to sustain customers' satisfaction and lectured on how to become successful entrepreneur. They were also oriented with proper product processing and handling skills. The program was part of the institution's objective together its partner agencies in bringing its programs and technical support to the community for economic development.

(L-R) Mr. Antonio Porlas of DDPKaRoMa and an instructor from TESDA lectures on how to deliver quality service to customers.

Dr. Evelyn R. Campeseño, JRMSU-VPRED orients the participants on the activities of the livelihood programs.

C JRMSU, TESDA initiate Livelihood Training Program in Mutia, Zamboanga del Norte

JRMSU led by the College of Education, together with the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA) personnel, initiated the Livelihood Training Program on December 2-3, 2012 at Buenasuerte, Mutia, Zamboanga del Norte where Campo Subanen was located. Cassava food processing was the focus of the training.

The residents were trained on livelihood skills which involved the processing of cassava into food products such as cassava cheese cake, cassava rolls, etc. They were taught in detailed as to proper food preparation, processing, handling and packaging. The livelihood training served as an avenue for them to start a small business as additional income.

D DOLE trusts JRMSU to spearhead the 3-year Strategic Plan of the Kurambos Project

Jose Rizal Memorial State University (JRMSU) spearheaded the 3-year Strategic Planning for Kurambos Project held at Bajamunde Farm Pension on September 28-29, 2011.

La Libertad in Zamboanga del Norte, one of the poorest municipality, was the first beneficiary of the project. Kurambos Project is a strategy, holistic approach and advocacy for a stronger partnership and corroboration between the Department of Labor and Employment with its craftsman, Region IX Regional Director Ponciano Ligutom and among agencies from Educational Institutions (HEIs, TESDA & DepEd), Provincial Offices, NGAs, Office of the First Congressional District of ZaNorte, POs and Community-Based Organizations (CBOs) by counterparting of resources towards its mission to effect positive change of having a vibrant community through improved economy and better social well-being of the constituents.

Engr. Judito Bentoy, Gawad Kalinga Western Mindanao Area Coordinator orients the participants from JRMSU System on GK Training Workshop on Community Organizing.

Financial subsidies from the government are appropriated and utilized to efficiently and effectively perform the mandated functions of the University, namely: instruction, research, extension and production. Tremendous accomplishments in instruction, successive national and international awards and recognitions to researches conducted, increasing recognized extension programs, and growing physical development as to the number of newly established facilities and laboratories are clear evidences of translating funds to exemplary performance.

To provide hands-on opportunities for the students to apply their knowledge, the University invested millions in facilities and technology. Grants from the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) and other funding agencies pave way for the establishment of laboratories and facilities. In many cases, students have access to facilities that rival those of major universities in the country.

B University Facilities and Laboratories

JRMSU boasts a wide range of campus facilities and services ranging from the Sports Complex – Zamboanga del Norte's newest outdoor sports center - to Sardines Processing Center as well as accommodation facilities.

The University also showcases science laboratories, maritime and engineering laboratories, computer laboratories, speech and communication laboratories like the Job Enabling English Proficiency (JEEP) Lab, nursing lab which features the Human Simulator and the recently inaugurated Php 19-M Hotel and Restaurant Management (HRM) Laboratory which is funded by CHED. Students have also access to libraries, audio-visual rooms, clinics, lounges, internet and computer facilities.

The CHED-funded Php 19-M HRM Laboratory consists of a lecture room with demo facilities for HRM students. The equipment included meet the standard set by CHED.

Maritime students enhance their speaking ability in the JEEP Laboratory.

The METI Man, a controlled machine operated laboratory facility, is the highlight of the University's nursing laboratory.

The University Gym with the swimming pool in frontage, is the seat of various academic and socio-cultural activities in the campus.

The University Sports Complex accommodates over 30,000 thousand participants and spectators of 2011 Palarong Pambansa.

University Activities

The University is committed to create, enhance and maintain a high quality of learning and working environment that enables the University's teaching, research, public service and student development programs to reach fullest potential.

Varied university activities for students, faculty complemented the different programs in the Campus. Through these activities, every member of the entire JRMSU Community is made aware of his potential and the opportunities to actualize. With this recognition, wide spectrum of programs and activities and the like such as leadership development seminars, for a, tours, field trips are held, aimed at the holistic development of the individual which enable him to become contributive members of the society.

A Students' Sports and Socio-Cultural Affairs

JRMSU is the hub for co-curricular and extra-curricular programs, as well as activities. It fosters student development by providing first-hand experience in leadership and sponsoring an array of cultural, educational, social, and recreational programs.

To join with the City of Dapitan in celebrating the feast of St. James the Greater, the University faculty, staff and students annually display world-class talents showcasing contemporary dance, acoustics, modern jazz, hiphop and pop music. The University's Lundayan Choristers and Lundayan Dance Troupe also give back-to-back performances.

The University also commits itself towards the preservation and promotion of cultural activities and traditional dances. The University annually celebrates Buwan ng Wika (National Language Week), to appreciate the significance of "Filipino" as the country's national language. The celebration highlights various literary and musical competitions like folk dance, interpretative dance, among others.

To provide a venue for healthy competitions that will develop the students' physical strength and agility as well as in instilling the value of sportsmanship in any competitive undertaking, the University Athletic Meet is conducted yearly.

C Guidance Services

The guidance and counseling office of the University lives up its vision of becoming outstanding support system in the realization of the development of the students' total well-being. Services focus on Information and Orientation, Individual Inventory, Follow-up, Referral, Scholarship, Career Guidance, and other activities.
